Come and join Temple people for a day in the park

We will be sharing a potluck lunch so please bring a dish large enough for group sharing. There are lots of picnic tables so we can enjoy a merry feast together and celebrate the bounty of Mother Earth. The temple will provide plates, utensils, and napkins as well as jugs of water. We ask that you bring your own reusable bottle or cup. Come join us as we invoke growth for the Earth, ourselves, each other, and community, through storytelling, song, and ritual.

There will be lots of fun things set up for children to enjoy, including a table for drawing and coloring, bubble blowing tubes, bat and whiffle balls for a little lite baseball, kites, frisbees, etc.

Future Rituals: Autumn Equinox ~September 22...All Hallows ~ October 27, 2012
