Equinox—where day and night are equal. From now on the nights are longer than the day. It's a time to reap the harvest grown from the sowing done at Spring Equinox. At Summer Solstice we weeded and pruned that which would limit our harvests. Now, we grieve over the dying of the Goddess, but know that She will return. In the meantime, we take Her harvest into our bodies, and the knowledge of the Cycle of Life into our souls.

Join us as we harvest the bounty we deserve. Harvest it for the Earth, ourselves, each other, and community, through dance, song, and sacred enactment.

Bring musical instruments to be joyfully played during the ritual enactment. Light refreshment will be provided afterwards. We will be accepting non-perishable food, clothes, blankets, etc. for the Downtown Women's Center.
